Justification for course proposal:

Since GERO 101 is an introductory course to the field of Gerontology, we have submitted a separate proposal to make it a lower division course (GERO 11). GERO 101 was a prerequisite for this course, so we are editing the pre-requisites below to reflect this change. We are also removing the course note. Any other content marked in green below is an artifact of this course last being approved before the advent of Courseleaf, rather than a change.

Course Description: (Not to exceed 80 words and language should conform to catalog copy.)

This course is a supervised practicum experience in a community agency planning for or delivering professional services to older adults. This practicum experience is part of two culminating courses for the major and focuses on application of the interdisciplinary nature of the discipline while affording students direct, hands-on experiences. Includes a field seminar. Seminar discussions focus on the application of gerontological concepts derived from all gerontology courses and are applied to each student's specific practicum area.
