Justification for course proposal:

Across the university, courses designated 99, 199 or 299 are titled "Special Problems." The title does not necessarily reflect the nature of the courses as independent study and uses language, that in the context of educational institutions, has a history of being derogatory and offensive to students with disabilities. Building upon the university's DEI initiatives, the GE Honors Program seeks to retitle the course as Independent Study.

Course Description: (Not to exceed 80 words and language should conform to catalog copy.)

Open to students enrolled in the General Education Honors Program. Individual projects and directed reading for students seeking to explore topics and issues not covered in the standard curriculum. Requires approval of the Honors Program Director and Honors faculty member under whom the independent work is to be conducted.
