In order to keep our interdisciplinary course model, we are updating our minor by updating the coding of one course WGS 125 (course code change from WOMS). We are also updating our PLOs and correcting a typo in the catalog units, to reflect that the total unit range for electives is 12-14 units (rather than 12) due to the existence of 4-unit language classes options in this section.

Program Description

The minor offers students a framework to explore South and Southeast Asia from an interdisciplinary perspective, examining the religion, culture, and history of peoples and countries in the region such as Afghanistan, India, and Pakistan, and further east to Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, Vietnam and others. Students will be introduced to the broader region through two pan-Asia courses before selecting area studies electives to fit their own interest.
