

Transportation Advisory Committee

The University Transportation Advisory Committee is the principal campus body responsible for recommending to the President, or his designee, policy on all aspects of campus transportation, including: Review and critique existing transportation programs; explore and recommend new programs and modification or elimination of existing ones; recommend priorities for use of parking fines and forfeitures revenue; aid in the development of policy proposals, fee schedules and other matters related to the conduct of a comprehensive transportation management program

Faculty Representative

- Nick Shepard, Design (A&L) – Term: Fall 2024 – Spring 2027
- Anne Bradley, Library – Term: Fall 2025 – Spring 2028

Updated 6/3/2025