

Native Scholars & Transition Program

Who We Are

The Native Scholars & Transition Program's goal is to increase the enrollment, retention and graduation rates of Native students. The program guides students through the admissions process, and provides transitional support through summer programming, and learning communities.

Student Enrollment

Fall 2018

Total: 83 students

Female – 47

Male – 36

Spring 2019

Total: 77 students

Female – 43

Male – 34

Events & Programs

- American Indian Summer Institute
- California Indian Curriculum Summit
- College Motivation Day
- Native American Culture Week
- Native Graduation Ceremony

Point of Pride

Sacramento State has earned a place among the Top 200 Colleges for Indigenous Students in the American Indian Sciences and Engineering Society's 26th Annual Special College Issue.

Feedback from Participants of the Native Scholars Program

- 95% of students either agree or strongly agree they possess a better understanding of Sac State's transfer process.

- 95% of students either agree or strongly agree they want to participate in future Native Scholar events.
- 89% of students either agree or strongly agree they are more informed about financial aid, grants, loans, and scholarships.

*Contact information:
(916) 278-6183
jmejia@csus.edu*