Dreamer Experience Seminar

Sense of Belonging Survey

Fall 2019: 96% of students reported feeling a stronger sense of belonging because of participation in the seminar and the peer mentor program

Spring 2020: 98% of students reported feeling a stronger sense of belonging because of participation in the seminar and the peer mentor program

Student Testimonials

"I enjoyed connecting with other students who share similar experiences and finding a place where I felt comfortable – a space for me."

"I loved everything about the seminar – the Tuesday update emails were extremely useful, and I enjoyed the connections I made and the events that we attended."

"Through my involvement with the center, I was able to connect to the campus and feel more at home. Being new to Sac State and coming from the community college, I was nervous and kind of lost. The transition was much smoother thanks to the seminar, my mentor, and the DRC in general."

Survey Results

97% of trainees identified at least two resources to support undocumented students

96% of trainees reported feeling more prepared to support undocumented students.

Ally Testimonials

"I loved the information and the way it was laid out – the training is very well organized. I also appreciated learning how to be a proactive voice for students in the community instead of waiting for them to come to you."

"I learned how I can personally assist Sac State's undocumented students - being an ally, financial support, participating in outreach events, etc. I look forward to getting more involved with the DRC."

"I did not know that AB 540 gave students an opportunity to attend college without having DACA. I also had no idea about AB 130/131 and the fact that students can get financial aid. Thank you for sharing all of this amazing information and resources!"
